Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Relation of the University to Secondary Schools: An Address Delivered at Berkeley, Before the California Union, on November 10, 1898 Some subject offer a peculiar form of temptation, through the bare possibility of treating them within the narrow boundaries of an hour. The attempt is made to do this, and the consequent hurry defeats its own end. The present topic avoids danger from that source by the very magnitude of it. The two latest stages in the organized process of training for the work of maturity are important in themselves, and in their connection, to the highest degree. The questions involved have a place in the thought of very nation that is to any extent a leader in education. These questions have been under serious discussion almost continuously during the second half of this century, at least. Therefore, even a skeleton resume of this activity is out of the question. We can turn attention toward the region occupied by it; we can point out some lines of entry into that region; and the attitude of the University of California on a few general types of policy can be denned. But a well-regulated ambition will attempt no more than this. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
