Excerpt: . . . y First Choice Option will cover the provision of personal care services to help with the activities of daily living such as dressing, bathing, grooming, and eating that allow people to be able to live independently. On this score, I always tell the story about my nephew Kelly, who became paraplegic while serving in the U. S. Navy. Again, because he was in the military all of his disability functions are paid for by the Veterans Administration. So the VA pays for his attendant services. He lives by himself in his own home, drives his own van. But his attendant services on a daily basis allows him to get up in the morning, go to work, operate a small business, pay taxes, and be a fully contributing member of our society, plus having those contacts and social contacts and interaction that so many of us just take for granted in our daily lives. Community-based...
