Magai New Media, LLC, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the rugged woods of Tohickon Valley, a Cinnamon bear cub yields a grisly secret. Set in Bucks County, Sea Bright and Bass River, Living out of a Tin Cup is a poignant journey into the world of FBI agent Rachel Sarnoff that culminates in an unexpected, ultimate revelation of profound love and loss. This book - Living out of a Tin Cup and my other one - Winterburg go very well together. What some Readers have said: The Beauty of Nature, The Beauty of the Nation, The Beauty of Those who Protect it. If you ever felt lost, if you have ever been found, if you ever felt troubled, if you have ever been blessed, then this is the book for you! I read the back about love and loss and all the while was thinking - love? - how is there love in a murder mystery? What a great job you did weaving it all together! My 14-year old son read it, and said - It s as if Rao was talking to me!.
