POLICE REFORM AND EDUCATION. If Lord Curzon had done nothing else he would have earned the gratitude of India for his courage in taking up and grappling the question of Police reform. It is only the lower classes that know how heavily the hand of the law can oppress them and how those whose ostensible duty is to protect, can become their oppressors at almost every stage of their lives. For years it has been known that almost all the subordinate ranks of the Police were corrupt to the very core, and that no one could be safe from their depredations and extortions. It was not long before that Lord Curzon became convinced that it was not even necessary to place this department on the anvil in order to find out whether there was a flaw, and, if so, where. But in order...
