By George Hicks

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln Since the time of Washington and Franklin there has arisen no American so fully entitled to be numbered with them in the list of the world s great worthies as Abraham Lincoln. His is a name, not for an age but for all time, - not for one nation but for all peoples; and it is well to recall his memory and review his work, and consider those distinctive traits of character which made him the great man he was. A man really is what he is; we can know him, chiefly, by what he does, and his manner of doing it. What Lincoln had to do was the righting of a great wrong - the saving of a great nation by the removal of a great evil that was destroying the nation. To understand his work it is necessary to understand the nature of this evil, the conditions of its existence, and the difficulties attending its removal. The brief historical outline which follows will, therefore, be of use. I can vouch for...
