He was called a noble and generous man. Exercise will make us vigorous. The flies are already numerous. Observe some regular plan of study. He would be called a singular man. The generous are justly popular. The prosperous should aid the unfortunate. Prayer is a safeguard against the numerous ills of life. 81. READING LESSON. The great Creature a Balloon. O Harry, Harry! pray come here! cried Harriet to her brother, who was gathering wild flowers at a little distance, to make a nosegay for her: do pray come, and tell me what that great thing is which I see in the sky. Harry ran directly to see the strange sight; but he laughed as he ran towards her, because he thought it could be nothing but a cloud. He had often seen clouds very oddly shaped; sometimes like little boys and girls, sometimes like trees and houses; for he was a very intelligent little boy, observed every thing, and liked to be told the meaning of what he saw. With all his knowledge, however, Master Harry was very much surprised when his sister pointed out a great round thing mounting in the air, with something hanging at the lower part of it, just...
