THE BLUE LAKE LOOP. 35 Edwards, in southeastern Kidder County, and another near its south end. A still more conspicuous gap, toward which a prominent line of depressed lakes leads and which cuts down to the level of the plain, is a little south of the southeastern corner of Stutsman County. The drainage of this loop in its western half and possibly through its whole extent was into a plain lying between it and the First moraine, which it is judged drained northwest into Long Lake Valley. The plain west of Napoleon was 5 or 6 miles wide and much of it was covered with a fine layer of loam, while in other places it was very gravelly or sandy. Prom the north an outlet from Lake Edwards into Long Lake Valley was noticed, and reports...
