He recently gave $5,000 for a hospital in Liberia and was ready to stand back of any deficit that might come. Larger things may come from him when it comes to furnishing the departments for some special services to colored men. The fourth $1,000 came from Mr. Beckam, another man of large affairs, large visions, and large aims for the colored men. J. C. Napier, ex-register of the U. S. Treasury, gave $500, saying again, All I am I owe to the Nashville Association. Colored students meet in national convention May 13-17 at Kings Mountain, North Carolina, under the lead of John R. Mott. The splendid fight for an education put up by Richard A. Rice, secretary at Princeton, is an example to colored young men. He graduated from Cornell Law School last June, working his way through as a waiter at a...
