Pan Books, 1996. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Seven days and a lifetime ago, Joe Curtis was hitchhiking along a road in America's heartland when a young couple stopped to offer him a ride. Joe hesitated a moment. Then, in a single, life altering act, he climbed in. Within hours, he was a man caught in a nightmare. And within days he was wanted for murder. From the author of The River Sorrow, hailed by The New York Times as 'a haunting, highly original thriller' comes a harrowing portrayal of an innocent man accused of murder, plunged into America's dark underworld of armed militias and terrorist cults, running from cops, federal agents - and his own tortured soul. Joe Curtis is twenty-five, a Gulf War veteran with a survival instinct honed to a razor's edge. On the road to rescue his troubled brother, Joe is burned-out and nearly broke when a chance encounter changes his life - for the worse. And forever. Agent Leanne Red Feather, a Native American in a department full of tough white men believes that Curtis will lead her to a cache of stolen arms, and to charismatic cult leader Father Amon. a man preparing his acolytes for Armageddon. So begins a chase across America that ends in The Last Sanctuary - a place as universal as our own worst nightmares. book.
