Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 226 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.5in. This premium quality volume includes the complete text of two of H. G. Wells science fiction classics -- The War of the Worlds and The First Men in the Moon -- selected for this collection because of their enduring influence on the science fiction genre. This freshly edited and newly typeset edition features a large 7.44x9.69 page size and is printed on heavyweight bright white paper with a fully laminated cover featuring an original full color design. Also included in this volume are page headers and an introductory biographical sketch discussing Wells life, work and continuing literary significance. The two tales included in this volume share the common theme of humanity coming into conflict with strange alien societies, the invasion of the earth by hostile Martians in The War of the Worlds, and the encounter between human explorers and the native inhabitants in The First Men in the Moon. A common theme in the science fiction genre, these tales by Wells represent two of the earliest and most influential such stories. A matching volume, The Best of H. G. Wells, Volume II: The Time Machine, The Invisible Man, The Island of Dr. Moreau ISBN-13: 978-1494767792, ISBN-10: 1494767791, is also available. Herbert George Wells (1866-1946), was born to shopkeepers who had previously been employed as domestic servants. When an injury ended his fathers income as a professional cricketer, Wells parents, on the brink of poverty, apprenticed him to a draper, but he was dismissed after a short time and subsequently became a pupil-teacher in a system where older students helped teach younger students. Despite having little formal education, Wells, a voracious reader, won a scholarship to the Normal School of...
