If it should happen that my sacred song, Wherewith my hands have grasped the earth and heaven, And kept me lean, should conquer cruel wrong, That found me, sleeping lamb, from a fair sheepfold driven. The enemy of wolves in that revolt; With other voice, and in another guise, I will return a poet; at that font Baptismal, only will I take my cap as prize. Not else, but in the Faith which shows to man The mind of God, an entrance give me now; When holy Peter will my merits scan, And place the laurel wreath upon my aching brow.
