LIMITED EDITION. The new edition of The Szyk Haggadah from Historicana is a tour de force of fine bookmaking. It takes advantage of every recent advance in photography, color reproduction, papermaking, and typography and even goes several steps beyond. It also showcases an original translation and commentary that sheds new light on Arthur Szyk's brilliant art and on the Passover celebration as never before. Szyk, the greatest 20th century illuminator and in the words of historian Cecil Roth "the greatest illuminator since the sixteenth century", considered the Passover Haggadah his masterwork. The 48 miniature paintings of this luxurious fine art book are the modern culmination of medieval tradition of illuminated manuscripts (illustrated Haggadahs, in particular). As with the finest books of the Middle Ages, every page of The Szyk Haggadah from the illuminated capitals to the calligraphy to the painting itself is a virtuosic work of artistic accomplishment and deep scholarship. On the final dedication page of the...
