Xulon Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are you tuned to listen to the cry of your soul? In this book, you are about to discover that depression is a natural response of the body. Unfortunately, many people around the world including Christians have missed the real value of depression. They are spending money for what is not bread, and labor for what does not satisfy. Could you be one? If you feel depressed and discouraged, if you are trying to indulge yourself with all kind of goodies in search of satisfaction, if you ve tried to medicate your way to a peaceful life with no success; you are not alone. Maybe your soul is trying to tell you something. Would you be willing to listen? Do you know how? This book will teach and challenge you to pay attention and to respond effectively to the cry of the soul. J. Gardy Bruno is a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ. He has been teaching Sunday school to teen for over twenty years, he is a middle school teacher and an advisor. He and his wife Ernise are happily married and have four beautiful children. They are residents of Massachusetts. For questions comments, contact me at.
