Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: .third, that as regards the present members of this association this rule shall take effect September 1, 1919. The motion as amended to take effect September 1, 1919 prevailed by a vote of 34 affirmative, 2 negative, 11 not voting. The committee s resolution that in case of members exacting only the minimum entrance requirement of a four-year high school course, all of such requirement should be completed before the study of law is begun was adopted by the association, as was the resolution that the period of study required by article VI (2) is to be interpreted as meaning resident study. A recommendation made by the president in his annual address was adopted as follows: The executive committee be instructed to confer with the officers of the American Bar Association or any committee which that body may appoint with a view to the formation of a council on legal education, whose functions should be similar to those of the Council on Medical Education, and to report the results of this conference with the Bar Association to the next annual meeting of this association. New York State Bar Association. The thirty-ninth annual meeting was held at New York City January 14, 1916, President Clearwater presiding. A paper of interest in education was presented by Dean Fiero of Albany entitled Legal Education which led to seven conclusions to which was added the suggestion that the matter of legal education is the business of the bar, and its...
