Excerpt: . . . 11 37, 000 patriotic men and women who have sworn an oath to protect and defend a nation whose ideals they love and respect and believe in. Is there any better way to demonstrate your fitness for citizenship than to make that kind of commitment to what our nation stands for Arent these precisely the kind of individuals we should want as U. S. citizens Under existing law, if they never enter the military, Legal Permanent Residents can simply wait five years and become naturalized citizens. Or, by joining the mili-tary they can apply for citizenship sooner - after serving for three years on active duty or in the reserves. Mr. Chairman, I believe three years is simply too long a waiting period for men and women who have made the kind of commitment to our nation that you make by enlisting in the armed forces. And I should also note that most of the individuals were talking about here have already had Legal Permanent Resident status for some period of time before beginning their military service. Shortly before the April recess, I introduced legislation ( HR 1714 - The Armed Forces Citizenship Act ) which would have made active duty military personnel im-mediately eligible for citizenship. My bill would also waive the customary adminis-trative fees required for naturalization, and make it possible for service men and women to take their citizenship oaths overseas. Finally, a...
